2011-05-29 11:13 pm	toniogerald	@seanbell Is there any record/transcript kept for these discussions? BTW - Glad that visual design made the agenda! #QRchat
2011-05-29 11:18 pm	truemc	#qrchat hope to make it, on a road trip. Plan to stop soon. Will be mobile for #QRchat
2011-05-29 11:19 pm	toniogerald	@seanbell I'm particularly interested in past discussions. I know #QRchat will do the trick for tonight.

2011-05-30 12:02 am seanbell It's time for #qrchat. Welcome everyone on this holiday weekend here in the US. We will give folks a couple minutes to say hello.

2011-05-30 12:03 am sustainablylush Hello! First-time attendee. Nice to meet everyone. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:03 am seanbell @sustainablylush so true. But it works well for real-time access. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:04 am TCRealtorTony Hello.....from MN #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:04 am seanbell @sustainablylush Welcome! Glad to have you - what are you hoping to get out of #qrchat?

2011-05-30 12:05 am sustainablylush @seanbell Good point, Sean. A search filters out the other stuff so you can focus on the discussion. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:05 am m3mo Gotta make dinner for the kiddos, but #qrchat is going on now.

2011-05-30 12:05 am sustainablylush @TCRealtorTony Nanaimo, British Columbia, Canada here. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:05 am seanbell @TCRealtorTony @m3mo Hi - welcome! Glad to have you on #qrchat.

2011-05-30 12:06 am seanbell @ktiedt Hi Karl. Thanks for dropping in. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:06 am sustainablylush @seanbell So far we've just started using QR in printed marketing. I'm mostly curious to learn how others make it most effective. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:07 am TCRealtorTony See how others are using qr codes.....I see tonight is about design? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:07 am sustainablylush @seanbell I have a lot to learn. Wasn't sure until we tried it that you can scan them in colour+white rather than just B/W. :) #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:07 am seanbell @sustainablylush Excellent. We cover a wide range of topics - hopefully, we can add some value. There are a lot of smart people here #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:08 am sustainablylush @seanbell I don't doubt it, Sean! Looking forward to tonight's topic. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:08 am ktiedt @sustainablylush @seanbell the code + background needs a contrast ratio of 4:1 ideally but yes, colors work :) #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:08 am seanbell @TCRealtorTony Yes - tonight we are talking about visual design for #qrcodes. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:09 am sustainablylush @ktiedt Great fact! I'm writing that down. :D #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:10 am TCRealtorTony I mostly am interested in uses to get moreblife out of qr codes. Most are one shot items #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:10 am seanbell As we kick off tonight's discussion - here is a great article on @mashable about visual design <http://on.mash.to/let4FH> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:11 am seanbell @TCRealtorTony There are services out there that will allow you to manage the links your codes point at. Helps with reuse. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:12 am TCRealtorTony @seanbell I have seen people overlay a qr code on a picture to make a custom code.....have you done this? How? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:13 am sustainablylush @seanbell Thanks for that article. Skimmed it for now, but a great overview and intro to what can be done. Had no idea! #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:17 am seanbell This allows for more manipulation of the actual code and potentially a more appealing design. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:17 am sustainablylush @seanbell If you're going to get fancy, you want the highest level of error correction you can get? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:17 am seanbell @TCRealtorTony The only services I have seen for that type of customization charge a design fee per code. Nothing web enabled #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:18 am sustainablylush @gnosisarst @truemc Welcome! #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:18 am seanbell @truemc @GnosisArts Hi - welcome! #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:18 am toniogerard What about inserting logo(s)? Most of what I've seen subscribed for trial & error. Would love for some more concrete directions #QRchat

2011-05-30 12:18 am sustainablylush @seanbell Which makes us itch to build it! /cc @TCRealtorTony #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:18 am TCRealtorTony @sustainablylush what is your favorite qr code generator for quality? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:19 am seanbell @sustainablylush not necessarily, it is a bit of give and take. Use the error correction you need - it can slow down the scan. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:19 am seanbell @toniogerard There are services that will allow you to insert a logo in the middle of your code. Let me grab a link. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:20 am TCRealtorTony @toniogerard there are portions of the code that can be mashed or manipulated....from my experience it is trial an error #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:20 am sustainablylush @tcrealtortony I've used this one <http://lush.li/iexRmM> but no idea if it's best. Has worked for us. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:21 am sustainablylush If you're relying on the error correction, is there a best practice for testing? Do you have to test on every app and device? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:21 am TCRealtorTony @seanbell you can do it with publisher or other...#qrchat

2011-05-30 12:22 am seanbell @toniogerard Here is a link to an online service that will place a logo in the middle - there are more: <http://bit.ly/iUDa7Z> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:22 am gnosisarst What is meant by error correction? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:23 am TCRealtorTony @sustainablylush that is the problem..not all generators/readers have the same quality #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:23 am toniogerard @TCRealtorTony That's what I've gathered Have design skill, but am by no means a designer. Curious if anything definitive out there #QRchat

2011-05-30 12:23 am ktiedt @GnosisArts error correction allows for how much of the code can be damaged/missing b4 it fails to decode, higher EC = more pos dmg #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:24 am seanbell @GnosisArts codes can be created with 1 of 4 different levels of error correction. Allowing the code to be read with missing data. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:24 am eQRoeil @seanbell #qrchat <http://t.co/ER6J1wr> qrcode with image / 2am in France too tired can't join you tonight

2011-05-30 12:25 am sustainablylush @gnosisarts You might want to take a look at this link as to how the pertains to visual design: <http://on.mash.to/let4FH> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:25 am gnosisarts @seanbell @ktiedt so you ideally want a generator with highest level of error correction? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:25 am seanbell @GnosisArts You want a generator with some flexibility. Highest correction isn't necessarily the best option. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:25 am TCRealtorTony @toniogerard you have to test....I dont think you can tell what is needed and what is not...#qrchat

2011-05-30 12:25 am m3mo <http://ow.ly/1tjyfN> @kerem_erkans site can generate & change the color of the QR code. Might have less error than logo-based ones #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:26 am sustainablylush @gnosisarts Sean pointed out error correction slows the scan, so there's a balance in there. /cc @seanbell #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:29 am eQRoeil #qrchat make tests with barcodescanner good reader but not really friend with design qrcodes. if it is too slow... change your design !

2011-05-30 12:29 am seanbell I thought this was a rather inventive use of design from @tapinn earlier this week: <http://yfrog.com/h0h2ynvj> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:30 am seanbell Oops from @tappinn #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:30 am sustainablylush If yr relying on the error correction, is there a best practice for testing? Do you have to test on every app and device? @seanbell #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:31 am seanbell If you are going to mess with the standard code you really do need to put a testing cycle in place. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:31 am sustainablylush RT @seanbell: I thought this was a rather inventive use of design from @tappinn earlier this week: <http://yfrog.com/h0h2ynvj> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:31 am sustainablylush @seanbell With multiple devices and apps, yes? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:32 am seanbell There are simply too many handset/reader combinations in the wild to be exhaustive - but you should test a decent sample. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:33 am seanbell Has anyone seen any interesting #qrcode marketing this week? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:33 am ktiedt @TCRealtorTony @toniogerard you can... but involves calculations and stuff, trial/error is much simpler rly (I dont know the math) #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:39 am seanbell The sky really is the limit. But, you may need a prof designer to get something truly unique. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:40 am sustainablylush @seanbell So all of this begs the question, what is a reliable QR generator that provides error correction customization? #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:41 am seanbell Another thing to think about - the design of the space around the code. There are lots of options to customize. #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:43 am seanbell @sustainablylush The answer isn't definitive. This space is exploding - here is another solid option: <http://bit.ly/m52MBd> #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:59 am sustainablylush @seanbell I'm using Qrcrafter on iPhone 4. Handled everything tried fast and no issues, including @ktiedt's stress test. :) @truemc #qrchat

2011-05-30 12:59 am gnosisarts @truemc Ah yes! btw, did you ever use our case study for your preso, Stephanie? #qrchat

2011-05-30 1:00 am ktiedt @sustainablylush the camera quality issue was confirmed during an event that @seanbell helped put on recently #qrchat

2011-05-30 1:01 am seanbell @truemc scanlife and neoreader don't like it though. I imagine there needs to be more quiet space around it. #qrchat

2011-05-30 1:01 am ktiedt good times #qrchat gotta run!

2011-05-30 1:01 am sustainablylush @truemc Qrcrafter on iPhone 4 picked it up instantly. #qrchat

2011-05-30 1:03 am truemc IT seems that it is probably best to design QR codes for older, slower smart phones - so not to turn off scanners to other codes! #QRchat

2011-05-30 1:03 am sustainablylush @aldsaur Worse places to be trapped. Could go for Mexican right now! #qrchat
